

2-5 Gayle says: Each unique brain may see things differently from other brains. That helps give life variety! I like these puzzles!

1. Look at these wall plates.
What do you see first?

What else do you see?

2. Stare at this drawing for a few seconds.
What does your brain see?

Is it a bench or a building--or what?

Does it seem to move or change its shape?

